

First Western Properties Expands With Metro Property Services

First Western Properties adds commercial property management services by partnering with Metro Property Services (Seattle) to create First Western Properties – Management.

Seattle, WA – May 14, 2018 - Puget Sound commercial real estate brokerage firm, First Western Properties, has expanded their full-service commercial brokerage to include property management by partnering with Metro Property Services in Seattle. First Western Properties - Management is the result of the new partnership and enables First Western Properties to better serve their growing clientele by offering management services along with their 40 years of expertise in retail commercial real estate transactions.

First Western Properties' President, Brennan McClurg describes the partnership by stating, "We are so excited to now offer property management services to our existing clients, with the same quality and professionalism that we provide with our brokerage services. Our clients will be able to keep these services under 'one roof', and benefit from our brokerage and management teams working hand-in-hand. Since our founding in 1979, First Western Properties has always been focused on providing best in class service to landlords, and the addition of Metro Property Services' team will only strengthen that focus."

Metro Property Services began in 2009 and has grown to become a leading commercial property management company in the Puget Sound. They are made up of a team of experienced commercial management professionals who are committed to maintaining a responsive and flexible organization, while employing the most effective operational management systems to enhance each property's performance. Metro Property Services has been rebranded as First Western Properties – Management and will continue its history of exceptional service by providing specialized commercial property management programs tailored to each client, their property and the community it serves.

First Western Properties – Management, Managing Principal, Kevin McNulty said, "We believe this is an exceptional opportunity to expand our reach and offer enhanced real estate services to our current clients and continue to build on our success. Metro Property Services was founded by creating a results driven, proactive property management company with a team oriented culture and entrepreneurial mind set. First Western Properties has a similar culture and mindset which makes our partnership work exceptionally well. We believe that this approach is so important when building high performance investments. If you have experience, sound strategies, and an engaged team behind an investment, it's going to perform. We all contribute here, and it shows."

- more-

###

ABOUT FIRST WESTERN PROPERTIES

First Western Properties is the premier retail-focused commercial real estate company in the Northwest. First Western Properties was founded in 1979 as a company whose sole purpose was the leasing of shopping centers built by their former parent company, First Western Development. Since then, First Western Properties has grown to become a full service commercial real estate brokerage and property management company that serves the greater Pacific Northwest region with offices in Kirkland, Seattle, Tacoma, and Portland. Visit our new website for more information at www.fwp-inc.com.

PRESS CONTACTS

Brennan McClurg

First Western Properties – Kirkland, Inc.

President | Principal

425-250-3280

Kevin McNulty

First Western Properties – Management

Managing Principal

206-686-2891